Act 1

Cinderella, diligently working on her chores, is interrupted by her malicious Stepsisters, Stepmother, and Lucifer the Cat. They mistreat her at every turn, but her goodness shines through as she bestows kindness to her mice friends. We then travel to the Royal Court where Courtiers and Jesters dance for the King and Queen. The Prince and his friend arrive at the Palace where the King and Queen insist on throwing a ball to find him a wife. News spreads to the villagers that they are invited to The Ball and the Sisters and Stepmother take extra care in preparing with dance lessons and new dresses. The Stepmother and Sisters have no intentions of allowing Cinderella to attend The Ball, and thus, ruin her dress. Cinderella flees to the garden crying where her Fairy Godmother appears. With a bit of Glitter and Magic, the Fairy Godmother helps Cinderella transform and sends her off to The Ball.

15 MINUTE INTERMISSION

Guests from near and far attend The Ball in hopes of winning over the Prince. Courtiers, Princesses, and the Sisters each take turns trying to woo the Prince, but he is immediately entranced when the mysterious Cinderella arrives. Finally, the Prince and Cinderella connect, only to be disrupted by the stroke of midnight when the Fairy Godmother's magic wears off. In her haste, Cinderella drops one of her Glass Slippers. Using the slipper, the Prince vows to search the Kingdom to try to find his true love. Just as he begins to Lose Faith, he arrives at the Stepmother's home. Much to the dismay of the Sisters, it is revealed that Cinderella is the perfect fit for the shoes. The Prince and Cinderella are reunited and throw a huge wedding for everyone, for they know, that this will be an everlasting love.
